

Goal: $1M for Youth

STAKES have never been THIS HIGH

Six Things to Know about Battle at the Ballpark

- 1 Save the Date (Adults Only): Saturday evening, June 4, 2022
- 2 Rock Paper Scissors played live on Busch Stadium Field
- 3 A “March Madness” style throw-down with all the flare and smack they can muster
- 4 Employee engagement and friend-to-friend fund raising campaign runs 3 months (April–June 2022)
- 5 Every participating organization will get an official game kit to support their planning
- 6 BIG awards await the winners—Money Raised, Game Winner, Smack Talker and more

Rock Paper Scissors, a beloved child’s game, delivers unique playability. It is the only game that gives every player—regardless of skill or age—an equal chance at winning. Throughout Eastern Missouri, players can challenge family, friends, co-workers, and industry competitors and their employees to enter a “battle” that is not only fun, and silly, but also plays it forward for youth futures.

Why Sponsor Battle at the Ballpark?

Powered-Up Partnership

Scale and reach are key to the success of this unique campaign. Combining your brand and team with Big Brothers Big Sisters can exponentially magnify results. Funds raised will fuel the programs and services of BBBSEMO.

Our Youths’ Future

Independently and as partners, BBBSEMO and our community show up for young people. We empower young people in their pursuit of a meaningful, stable, and independent life.

Innovation Drives Community Success

This first-time battle is like no other run, walk or golf tournament. It’s innovative. Your partnership is innovative. And your participation allows us to strive to innovate within our work and with development of new offerings.

For the Sake of Fun

Let’s create child-like energy. Battle at the Ballpark offers a chance to boost morale, engage teams and launch communities. Here’s a chance to challenge one another joyfully and further our cause to show up for youth. Let’s show the world who we are, together, by cheering one another on and by raising up our children.

Think Outside the Ring!

Trying to decide how much to sponsor or where it sits in your budget? Options might include:

- Client Entertainment
- Employee Engagement
- Charitable Giving

With so many opportunities to play and laugh—and the main event at Busch Stadium—you can leverage your Battle at the Ballpark sponsorship from multiple budgets.
